

Archaeological Ceramics: from Theory to Practice

Workshop 13th-16th May 2024

General Workshop Programme

Monday 13th May

Theoretical part I (Auditorium Maximum, Krupnicza 33, Aula Mała)

9.00-10.30 dr Edyta Marzec

Opening lecture (w języku polskim): Potencjał badawczy ceramiki

10.30-11.00

Coffee break

11.00-12.00 dr Sergios Manelaou

Introduction to laboratory methods applied in pottery studies

12.00-13.00 dr Georgia Kordatzaki

Using petrographic and experimental methodologies for understanding past pottery practices

Practical part I (Archaeological Museum, Senacka 3)

14.30-17.30 dr Georgia Kordatzaki with assistance of dr Edyta Marzec & dr Sergios Manelaou

Pottery making in practice, group 1 (in English, 10 participants)

Tuesday 14th May

Theoretical part II (Auditorium Maximum, Krupnicza 33, Aula Mała)

9.00-10.30 dr Edyta Marzec & dr Sergios Manelaou

Pottery research design – how to ask the questions depending on the aims of the study?

10.30-11.00

Coffee break

11.00-12.30 dr Edyta Marzec & dr Sergios Manelaou

Pottery research – selected case studies (in English)

Practical part II (Archaeological Museum, Senacka 3)

14.00-17.00 dr Georgia Kordatzaki with assistance of dr Edyta Marzec & dr Sergios Manelaou

Pottery making in practice, group 2 (in English, 10 participants)

Wednesday, 15th May 2024 (Laboratory of Archaeometallurgy and Conservation of Archaeological Heritage, Grodzka 52)

Practical part III: for MA, PhD students and academic teachers
(max 10 people at the same time)

10.00-16.00

Presentation of SEM method in pottery research

Consultations and discussions

Thursday 16th May 2024 (Laboratory of Archaeometallurgy and Conservation of Archaeological Heritage, Grodzka 52)

10.00-16.00

Practical part IV: SEM analysis of pottery samples